The regular week end dance will be given this evening at the Country club.

The members of the El Paso Social club held a meeting Friday afternoon in the offices of Turney and Burkes, when officers were elected for the coming year as follows:

C. H. Leavelle, elected president; Dr. L. G. Witherspoon, elected treasurer; Ralph Henderson, elected secretary.

Five dances will be given during the season by this club, which is the pioneer social organization of the city, and includes among its members many of El Paso's most prominent people. The dances will take place at the Toltz club, the first to occur early in October.

of the home funds, because they possess the home-building instinct. They are poor subjects for the "Get rich quick" schemes because of this natural instinct, and are the last to pack up and go fortune hunting in any of the remote corners of the globe. And when it comes to home-building—just take it from us, they've done a lot. They are posted on the things that go to make a home cheerful and comfortable. They know what they want when they see it, and for that reason we like to talk home to the women, because we have some of the best home propositions in El Paso.
